In this regard the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) was reported to have said, "There are no days in which good deeds are more beloved to Allah than in these days, meaning the ten days of Dhul-Hijjah. They – some of the Companions of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him) said, "O Messenger of Allah: not even struggling for the sake of Allah? He said: Not even struggling for the sake of Allah except a man who left with his soul and money and returned with neither."
